1. Introduction

The first weeks and months are vital to the success of any appointment. The arrangements made for introducing a new employee, or volunteer to the duties of the post, and to IWYS – Alternative Provision as a whole, provide the foundation for successful and safe contribution to IWYS - Alternative Provision. The induction programme is designed to help new employees, and volunteers become familiar with the requirements of their position and learn about IWYS - Alternative Provision's culture, ethos and working practices effectively and efficiently so that they become knowledgeable and confident as quickly as possible. The induction programme should be cross referenced to the probationary periods for support staff, as appropriate.

The induction process will:

- Provide information and training on IWYS - Alternative Provision's policies and procedures.
- Provide Child Protection training and safeguarding children training (including checking understanding).
- Enable the colleague to contribute to improving and developing the overall effectiveness of IWYS - Alternative Provision, raising pupil achievement, and meeting the needs of pupils, parents and the wider community.
- Contribute to the colleague's sense of job satisfaction and personal achievement.
- Explain IWYS - Alternative Provision's Code of Conduct to ensure that all employees, and volunteers and gov new to IWYS - Alternative Provision understand what is expected of them at IWYS - Alternative Provision and gain support to achieve those expectations.
- Identify and address any specific training needs.

The induction programme will include:

- An induction checklist of the policies, procedures and training to be covered.
- An induction timetable / diary of activities.
- Details of help and support available.
- Details of work shadowing, if appropriate.
- Details of other relevant individuals with responsibility for induction e.g. the designated mentor or business manager.

2. Management and Organisation of Induction

Responsibility for Induction

- Charmaine Baines is responsible for the overall management and organisation of induction of new employees, peripatetic, tutors and volunteers.

The person responsible for induction should:

- Make arrangements to ensure that a new employee, or volunteer is welcomed.
- Ensure that immediate needs are identified before taking up the position, where possible.
- Provide, if appropriate, a tour of IWYS - Alternative Provision and information about its facilities, answer questions and give practical advice.
- Introduce key personnel pertinent to the role in question.
- Ensure that an induction programme appropriate to the role in question is provided.

3. The Induction Programme

The person responsible for induction should ensure that an induction programme appropriate to the role in question is provided personally, or by the line manager, mentor, or another person with delegated responsibility.

The induction programme will include:

- A safeguarding induction
- A checklist of the policies and procedures to be read and understood
- Details of help and support available

- An induction timetable / diary of activities
- Details of other relevant individuals with responsibility for induction, e.g. the proprietor or business manager.

Induction programmes should be tailored to the role in question. Areas which should be considered for each category of staff are set out below. These are not intended to be exhaustive and careful consideration should be given in relation to each post and the experience of the inductee.

4. Specific Induction arrangements for:

All Staff

All new staff should be given appropriate induction advice, training and resources by Miss Charmaine Baines or another person with delegated responsibility.
